

If you are living in Japan

The website for intercultural communication with Japanese people

JP-MIRAI Friends

Introducing an app that allows Japanese people and foreign nationals to help each other!

The JP-MIRAI portal operated by the Japan Platform for Migrant Workers towards Responsible and Inclusive Society (JP-MIRAI) now features a website for intercultural communication between Japanese people and foreign nationals!

Search within several categories for friends, colleagues, and events!

(Examples of target fields)

Life

Parenting/education
Health
Regional activities

Events

Sports
Concert
Festival

Education/ Schools

Japanese/
Foreign languages
Food
Handicraft

Helping each other

Interpreting/translation
Helping/
Teaching each other
Exchanging items

Fit for any purpose, for example "learning about local history and culture", "learning Japanese", "playing soccer", "finding people to enjoy Latin music with", or "learning about Vietnamese food!"

Supported languages 9 languages

Japanese, English, Chinese, Vietnamese, Tagalog, Indonesian, Burmese, Portuguese, Spanish

Details

- Support is available for those who are new to assisting foreign nationals.
- We offer awards for outstanding cases and other promotions to encourage as many people as possible to join.
- Supported languages : Posts and replies are machine-translated.

The machine translation engine is Google Translate.

It will be possible to post and reply in languages other than the nine currently-supported languages.

Prohibitions :

Posts and replies that constitute or pertain to commercial activities, job placement, political messages, slander, or other illegal activities are prohibited, and will result in the deletion of your account.

Download the app here

iOS version

Android version

App operator

JP-MIRAI Joint Secretariat
(JP-MIRAI Service)

Contact for inquiries

JP-MIRAI Service
friends@jp-mirai.or.jp

